

Whitemountain has been accredited to Investors in People (IIP) since 2007 and is delighted to maintain this standard.

The organisation was assessed against the IIP Framework, which promotes business and people management excellence. A number of employees throughout the organisation were interviewed by the IIP assessor during the assessment process and provided some very useful feedback. Whitemountain continues to be committed to the strong principles that underpin the IIP framework